Prayer requests as of October 20th:

FOR JOYCE AYLOR: Early tomorrow (Monday) morning, I'll have a cerebral angiogram done which was recommended by my cardiologist, who discovered a couple areas of concern. Once the procedure is done, I'll have a better idea of what additional procedure or medicines I'll need, hopefully to resolve these concerns. I appreciate your prayers.

FOR LYNDA ATKINS: I will be having knee replacement surgery this Tuesday, 10/29. Please pray for successful surgery, no complications, and a speedy recovery.

FROM BASIL TATE: My sister, CORA HOPEWELL was admitted to Methodist Hospital in the Woodlands Monday night. She was having trouble communicating and was disoriented. The hospital ran tests to determine what is causing those symptoms. Saturday update FROM BASIL TATE: My sister, CORA HOPEWELL is now home as she had to stay overnight just one night. They have had some changes in her medication and hopefully everything will be fine. Thank you for praying.

FROM ROGER AND CHERI ARRAS: Our NEPHEW and HIS WIFE (JESSICA) are expecting their first baby on December 20. Jessica has been having contractions this weekend. Her water broke late last night. She is on IV antibiotics and her doctor hopes to hold off labor for two more weeks. Please pray for them and their baby girl for a safe healthy delivery.

FROM MAXINE DOYLEY: Maxine was requesting prayers for her eldest brother, DENZIL MEDLEY, in Florida. He was in ICU with life-threatening congested heart failure and kidney failure. We prayed last year when he was diagnosed with myeloma. Denzil passed away on Thursday. Please pray for Maxine and her family.

DON YORK had his detached retina surgery this week. His doctor said it was successfully reattached and Don is returning to Waco with his son. Thank you for your prayers.

FROM PATTY OTTO about her daughter Becky: I just spoke with Becky. Her Cardiologist has put her on a new medicine and said he wants to schedule a stress test. Please pray that they can get to the bottom of her problem.

FROM DEBBIE MACKELLAR: Keith and I are traveling to Chicago for a family funeral and will miss the next two Sundays as well. Please pray that we have opportunities to share Jesus with many members of both our families who don't have a relationship with Him. Please add our families to the prayer list.

FROM KATHRYN TRAVIS: "I am doing better just still very, very weak. The concussion is about healed which is a blessing. The problems with my weight loss and intense pain continue to make my life difficult. Walking to and from the car takes everything out of me. Hopefully I will be able to restart Physical Therapy soon. The ribs still have about 4-5 weeks more to heal. Thanks for checking in. I miss everyone so much!!!"

FROM KATHIE KASIK: Had a good visit and rapport with orthopedic doctor regarding her fracture in her lower spine. However, full assessment after I see several other doctors in upcoming weeks. Thanks for loving on me with your prayers.

FROM LENORA HOLT: Our friend Jim Reid who had a stroke is slowly making progress with small steps of improvement every day. His speech is improving. It sounds like he really works at it, determined to get back to normal.
